

It's too late for some things...

...but not too late to start a brilliant career.

Customs and excises Manager opportunity with KPMG in Romania

What are we looking for?

When you choose KPMG as the place to build your career in tax, you can really add value. KPMG's tax partners and professionals pride themselves on understanding our clients' business strategy and needs, providing a broad range of local and international tax services to meet those needs. Together with other KPMG International member firms we provide services that help address our clients' tax needs close to home and around the world. KPMG is a great place to build your career. We are currently seeking a Customs and Excises Manager to join us in our Bucharest office.

The successful candidate should:

- Serve as a customs advisor to corporate clients in a range of industries on customs matter services and savings opportunities, including customs compliance audit;
- Lead client tax work for big industry excise duties payers (tax consultancy, maintenance of client relationships, tax projects);
- Generation of new ideas and tax solutions;
- Preparation of presentations for clients;
- Research and write client customs/excises advice and review customs / excises advice for clients prepared by assistants and senior assistants;
- Maintain active communication with clients to manage expectations and help ensure client satisfaction;
- Manage risk and financial performance of engagement, including billing, risk assessment, and budget for all projects.
- Manage, direct, monitor, and deliver multiple client engagements;
- Act as coach and mentor to other customs and excises professionals;
- At least 5 years professional experience as a tax consultant or as in-house tax specialist for a commercial company;
- Practical experience is a plus.

Technical skills:

- In-depth knowledge of Romanian customs and excises legislation;
- Strong management skills / Ability to organize and lead team work;
- Experience in building good client work relationships;
- Good analytical skills;
- Good writing skills (both English and Romanian);
- English - advanced;
- Ability to lead several projects simultaneously.

To apply please send your CV in English to hr@kpmg.ro by 31 January 2010. Successful applicants will be invited for tests and interviews.